Virtue of the Week

CIRCUMSPECTION meaning: Careful consideration of circumstances and consequences

LOOKS LIKE: Pausing to think, Thinking before acting, Praying before acting, Asking for advice from an older, trusted person

SOUNDS LIKE: I should wait before I respond. Let me think about that. Jesus, help me to do what you would do. May I ask you for advice about something? Let me think about what I should do.

PSALM 31:2-6

Incline thy ear to me, rescue me speedily! Be thou a rock of refuge for me, a strong fortress to save me! Yea, thou art my rock and my fortress; for thy name's sake lead me and guide me, take me out of the net which is hidden for me, for thou art my refuge. Into thy hand I commit my spirit; thou hast redeemed me, O LORD, faithful God. Thou hatest those who pay regard to vain idols; but I trust in the LORD.

It would be great to have families from our school be able to receive this scholarship. The money that we put into Witness to Hope is where this money is coming from. It would be great to have it come back to help our families. I know it costs $30 to apply, but if you win the scholarship; it is worth it. You can also apply to the St. Mary Scholarship as well. Applying for one does not mean that you can't apply for the other. (The St. Mary scholarship will not be ready until after the first of the year.)

Peace, Veronica Kinsey

CLASSROOM NEWS

MRS. ANDERSON'S PRE-3 CLASS

The littlest wildcats have been very busy this winter learning and playing together! Since the start of the New Year we have completed our shape studies, learned about Martin Luther King Jr., began studying numbers 1-10, investigated water and ice, and discovered the story of Noah's Ark with our Kindergarten friends. We even made a huge ark loaded with animals that we have proudly hung up in the hallway!

We also celebrated Valentine's Day with a special V.I.P. party. It was a morning full of love as we crafted, played, and ate together with our special guests!

Looking ahead, we will be studying ways to keep our teeth healthy, exploring outer space with a space unit, having a PJ party, and continuing to learn about the love Jesus has for all the children!

Happy Winter!
From, The 3 Year Preschool Wildcats

MRS. KACHER'S 1ST GRADE CLASS

We have been working very hard and having a lot of fun in 1st Grade. In Religion, we are learning how Jesus, who healed and forgave people, asks us to show His love today. The students came up with many great examples of how they can spread love.

We have been enjoying the stories about different communities in our current reading unit. It has been fun comparing how different communities work together and depend on one another. In math, we are practicing new strategies to help us memorize our addition and subtraction facts while also learning about place value.

Our writing the past month has focused on winter and the many fun activities that we can enjoy in the snow and cold. We look forward to the rest of the school year and the many new things we have left to learn.

FYI

Welcome to Preschool

2020-2021 Preschool Enrollment for current families will take place on Monday March 2nd. Open enrollment will take place on Wednesday, March 4th. Registration packets are currently available. Parents must have all registration papers and deposit turned in to be completely registered and save their spot in the classroom. Children ages 3, 4, and 5 MUST be independent in the bathroom and completely out of diapers and pull-ups as we are licensed as a “Preschool” program and not a “daycare” program.

Open Registration for New Families: We will be opening registration for new families beginning Monday, March 2, 2020. If you know of a family that has children in grades preschool to 8th, tell them about our school and what a great place it is. Invite them to call the school to set up a tour.

Project Healthy Schools Wellness Tip: Whole grains contain important antioxidants that are not found in fruits and vegetables, as well as Vitamins B, E, magnesium, iron and fiber. Eat some whole grains every day!

Carry this thought in your heart as a guide for your faith journey this week.

Leviticus 19: 1-2, 17-18

Psalm 103: 1-2, 3-4, 8,10, 12-13

1 Corinthians 3: 16-23

Matthew 5: 38-48

Similar to Leviticus, this portion of Jesus' teaching stresses that our relationships are constitutive of our sharing in the holiness of God. Jesus upholds social justice and limits retaliation. He goes further and demands love for enemies, referring to the image of a God whose sun shines upon good and bad alike.

- What surprises you about the Gospel?
- What do you think it means that God dwells in you?
- Do you need to change to follow Jesus' way?

A universal calling

The call to holiness is universal. The exhortation of Jesus regarding perfection which concludes this Gospel challenges every member of the Church to live daily as a disciple of Jesus. In the Second Vatican Council, the Church made it clear that all believers are called to holiness of life. This teaching appears in the fifth chapter of the Council document Lumen Gentium, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church (1964). The bishops referred to the baptismal inheritance of every believer. Incorporated into Christ by Baptism, each believer is gifted with a share in the mystery of Jesus, the Holy One of God. Thus, holiness is always a grace given from God.

The gift of holiness is showered upon the Church. By his loving sacrifice on the Cross, Christ makes the Church his bride. She is clothed in the Holy Spirit and joined to the Lord Jesus. The entire ecclesial community is called to holiness in the conditions, duties and circumstances of their lives. By partaking of the Sacraments, by listening to and reflecting upon Sacred Scripture, by a devout life filled with faith, hope and charity, by striving for a moral life in accord with the Commandments, and by putting into practice the Beatitudes of Jesus, believers respond together to the promptings of divine grace and seek that holiness which characterizes God.

The Gospel in Life

God has bound himself to us, first in the Covenant with Israel and definitively in the new Covenant forged with all humanity in the Body and Blood of Jesus. Our relationships with one another are linked in that quest to share God's holiness. Jesus joins together the Commandment to love one's neighbor with the same command to share God's holiness and perfection.
