

Dear Entering Third Grade Students and Families,

Summer is just around the corner and with its arrival comes the opportunity to plan for great vacation reading choices. The goal is to create a life-long love of reading by providing students with a broad selection of titles that appeal to their varied interests. Asking questions about the story nurtures your child's critical thinking skills. Questions such as, "Describe your favorite character" or "What do you think will happen next?" are just some of the ways to extend the story. Reading aloud together is also a wonderful experience especially when time allows for more relaxation during the summer months.

Please choose at least 3 books from the list below to read over the summer. Many of these authors have written more than one book (*) so you should be able to find the books readily available at the library or in bookstores. Fill out the reading log at the end of the list. When you come to school in September, please be ready to tell about a book that you enjoyed.

Thank you for making reading a family priority this summer and always!

Sincerely, Mrs. VanZalen, Third Grade Teacher
